4. After reviewing the records of the students identified in 2(b) and 2(c) above, the faculty or the Academic Committee may make one or more of the following decisions:
 - (a) that no action be taken;
 - (b) that the student be sent a letter giving them advice to assist in improving their academic performance;
 - (c) that the student be sent a letter warning them that if their academic performance does not improve in the next semester or next year further action, including exclusion from the faculty, may be taken;
 - (d) that the student be permitted to re-enrol subject to specified conditions, or restricted to a certain number of points. These conditions or restrictions will be determined by the Dean.
 - (e) that the student be declined enrolment for the future, or for such future period as may be specified, in a particular course or courses, subject, award or faculty. Students may not be declined enrolment in a faculty if they have not already received a warning letter and/or a restriction. A student who is considered for exclusion from a second faculty may also be considered for exclusion from the University.
 - (f) that the student be declined enrolment in the University.

If a student has already enrolled in a course of study from which they are later declined enrolment, the decision related to their progression will override their enrolment and their enrolment will be cancelled by the Academic Vice-Chancellor (Academic).

The Academic Committee will report to the Council the names of all students declined enrolment in the University.

5. Any student against whom a decision is made by the Academic Committee under clauses 4(d), 4(e) or 4(f) may first seek a review of that decision by the Dean. Such a review will consider any extenuating circumstances, such as ill-health, which might have contributed to the student's lack of success. If the original decision stands, the student may appeal to the Academic Committee within the time specified % 1 %
