

This section is presented for guidance only. It is not intended to be a substitute for the Animal Welfare Act 1986 and recognises that humane considerations require that the care and use of animals in teaching and research must be at standards that are at least as high as those provided by the Act.

The University aims:

- (a) to promote an attitude which encourages the careful and considerate treatment of animals so that no greater stress or suffering is produced than would be accepted as reasonable and tolerable by community standards; and
- (b) to ensure that teaching and research involving the use of animals is not hindered by inefficient techniques or careless practice.

Applications for review and approval must be made to the Animal Ethics Committee using the appropriate forms.
