

Certificate in English for Tertiary Studies (CertEnglishTertStudies)

See also General Course and Examination Regulations.

1. Purpose of the Certificate

The Certificate in English for Tertiary Studies is designed to provide students with the English language skills necessary for successful study at the tertiary level. It covers a range of academic and practical English skills, including reading, writing, listening, and speaking, and is intended to prepare students for the demands of university-level coursework.

2. Certificate Programme

The Certificate Programme consists of a series of modules that assess students' proficiency in English. The programme is structured to ensure that students who complete it have the necessary language skills to undertake tertiary-level studies. The modules are designed to be challenging and to provide a comprehensive assessment of the student's English language abilities.

3. Admission Requirements

Students applying for the Certificate in English for Tertiary Studies must meet the following admission requirements:

- () Tertiary level English proficiency (e.g., IELTS, TOEFL, etc.).
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.
- () Successful completion of the English language assessment process.

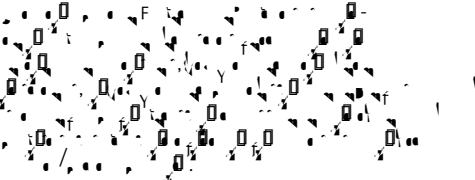

For full course information, go to www.canterbury.ac.nz/courses

Course Code	Course Title
F 001	Foundation Studies (English)
F 00	Foundation Studies (Mathematics)
F 00	Foundation Studies (Science)

Certificate in Foundation Studies (CertFounStudies)

See also General Course and Examination Regulations.

1. Purpose of the Certificate

2.

Certificate in University Preparation (CUP)

See also General Course and Examination Regulations.

1. Purpose of the Certificate

The Certificate in University Preparation (CUP) is designed to provide students who have not completed Year 12 of school with the opportunity to gain the necessary academic skills and knowledge to enter a degree programme at the University of the South Pacific.

2. Certificate Programme

The Certificate Programme consists of four semesters of study. The first semester is a preparatory semester, and the following three semesters are dedicated to the study of the core subjects required for entry into a degree programme.

3. Admission Requirements

Applicants must have completed Year 11 of school with a minimum grade of C in all subjects. Applicants who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards may also be eligible for admission.

Applicants who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards may also be eligible for admission. The University will consider applications from students who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards.

Applicants who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards may also be eligible for admission. The University will consider applications from students who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards.

Applicants who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards may also be eligible for admission. The University will consider applications from students who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards.

Applicants who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards may also be eligible for admission. The University will consider applications from students who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards.

Applicants who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards may also be eligible for admission. The University will consider applications from students who have completed Year 12 of school but have not achieved the necessary academic standards.

Note: Year 12 applicants who have been out of school for less than one school term, including those who have left school at the end of the previous year, may be considered, normally subject to the support of their former school principal. Year 13 applicants who apply during the course of their Year 13 year may also be considered, normally subject to the support of their former school principal.

4. Requirements for Credit

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

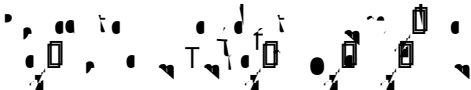

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

Students must achieve a minimum of 60 credits to be eligible for entry into a degree programme. Credits are awarded for successful completion of courses and are based on the number of hours of study.

For full course information, go to www.canterbury.ac.nz/courses

Course Code	Course Title
F 0Q	...