

What skills can graduates gain?

Through studying a degree in Spanish, graduates develop a valuable set of skills transferable to a range of careers. These skills can include:

- Reading, writing, listening and speaking Spanish
- Well-developed communication skills
- Understanding the global interactions which shape contemporary society
- Interpretive and analytical thinking
- Thinking critically and creatively, and challenging ideas
- Problem solving
- Research and computing
- Time management, planning and organisation.

Practise skills at work or in Spain

Applied learning opportunities are available through internships with potential employers, and immersive experiences in Spanish language

What advice would you give to current language students?