

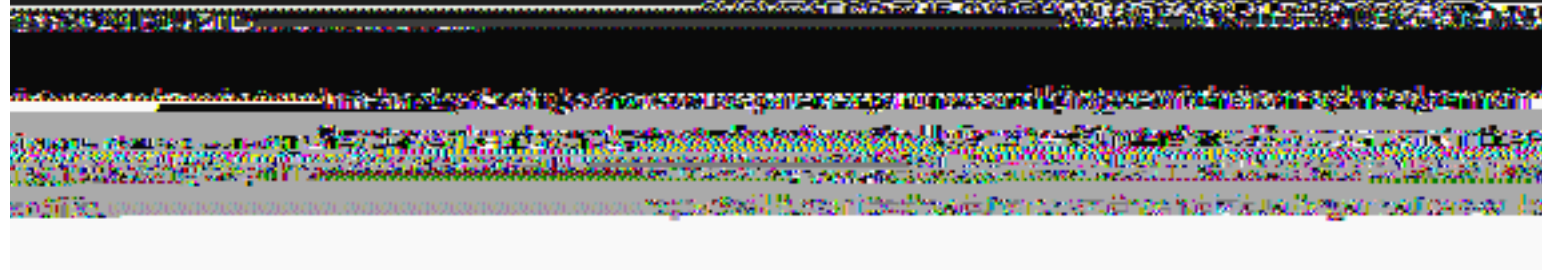

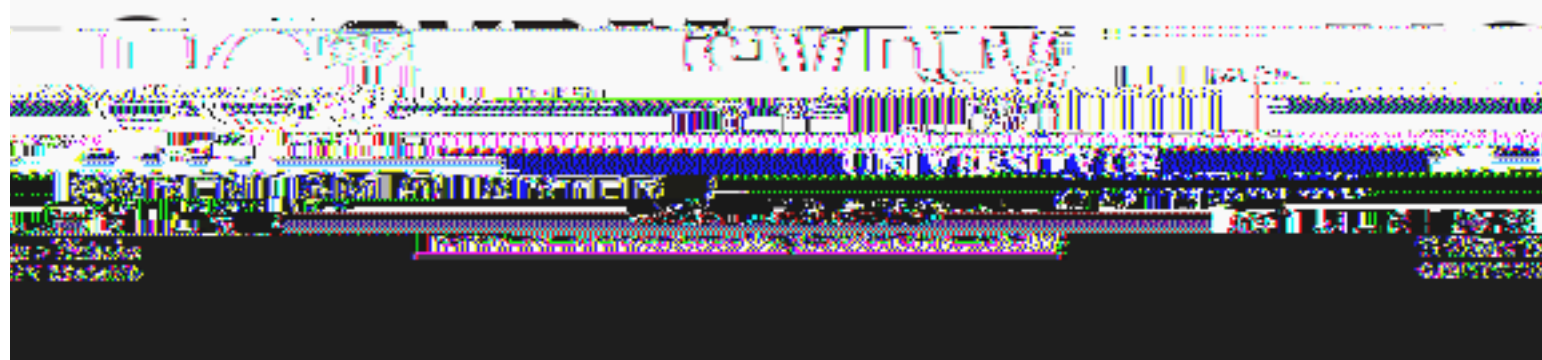

Figure 3.

Figure .

Figure

Figure .

supported by the Sydenham Quarter, business environment of

What strategies are important to you?

The survey aims to find out how local businesses could be best supported and what strategies could be adopted in the future to improve the Sydenham.

No identifying information will be passed on

What will happen to the information I provide?

The survey results will be stored securely, and used to write a report on business responses, to assist the council in making decisions with

Approximately 5-10 minutes

How will my business benefit?

The Sydenham Quarter has been created to provide a mix of uses, including residential, commercial and leisure, to create a vibrant and sustainable community.

If you change your mind or have any queries, please contact the survey team on 01603 252525.

For more information, please visit www.norwich.gov.uk/sydenham

General information

1. What is your role in this business (e.g. your job title, or position)?

None

Other

2. What best describes this business type?

Retail

Service

Hospitality

Service/retail

Other (please specify)

3. How many full-time equivalents (FTEs) does this business employ?

4. How many employees does this business employ in total?

5. What is the approximate size of the premises of this business (at this location)? (Please give your answer in square metres, if possible)

5. What is the approximate size of the premises of this business (at this location)? (Please give your answer in square metres, if possible)

7. What are the advantages of being located in Sydenham for this business?

8. What are the disadvantages of being located in Sydenham for this business?

9. How do you feel about the proposed increase in rates is collected from local businesses?

A BID is a targeted area in which a small percentage of businesses are required to contribute to a fund that is used to fund a range of services and projects that benefit the area.

Very negative

Somewhat negative

Neutral

Somewhat positive

Most positive

10. Please explain the reasons for your choice above.

Please brief

